

THE FRIDAY ISSUE

Friday 3rd May 2024

Issue No: 32

PTA

The PTA are looking for an accountant who is willing to give some of their time to translate records, kept by the treasurer, into a format which can be filed on the charity commission website on an annual basis.

It is a simple bookkeeping task which includes a bank reconciliation of two accounts. It would be approximately a day and a half annually.

All formats are well established and instruction would be given. Also, the present incumbent would be available for advice and guidance.

If you feel this is something you could help with, please contact either Michelle, Kirsty or Felicity.

Congratulations!

Congratulations and a round of applause goes to two of our teachers who have passed their NPQ's.

Mrs Kennerley has passed the National Professional Qualification in Leading Literacy and Mrs Burney has passed National Professional Qualification in Leading Behaviour and Culture.

Well done to both of you!

A Man (or Woman) With a Van Wanted!

Do you have access to a van? Kirsty, our gardener, has been given a large piece of MDF but can't transport it from Green Lane to school.

If you could help, please could you contact the school office so arrangements can be made.

Thank you.

Heaton Moor Golf Club

Heaton Moor Golf Club, on Mauldeth Road are running a free Golf Taster Day on Sunday 19th May and are looking for anyone who is interested in having a go.

For more information please see the poster below.

Class Photographs

The last day for ordering class photos has been extended to Monday 6th May.

The Great British Sewing Bee

Can you sew? Do you think you have a talent for sewing? Applications are now open for series 11 of The Great British Sewing Bee and they are looking for a bunch of amateurs to take part

They are keen to hear from anyone 18+ who has a passion for sewing and creating clothes for themselves or others, so if you or someone you know is a talented amateur sewer then please do encourage them to apply at www.applyforsewingbee.co.uk
